Teacher's Biography

Mr. Tony Chong a member of the College of Examiner of the Royal Conservatory of Music, is a graduate of the University of Toronto, majored in music theory. He studied piano with Clifford Poole and composition with Samuel Dolin. He is actively involved with many musical events and performances especially with the North York Board of Education, The Gilbert and Sullivan Society and Cathedral Bluffs Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Chong has joined the Euromusic teaching staff since February 1994. His superlative teaching and careful preparative for the theory examinations are reflected in the high standing of the students in all theoretical courses. His method is direct, precise, responsible and highly organized.

Ms. Cheryl Chung holds a Masters of Music in conducting from the University of Toronto where she studied with Dr. Doreen Rao and Maestro Raffi Armenian. She was twice recipient of the prestigious Elmer Iseler Fellowship. She also received the John O. Mc Keller Scholarship for her work in Music Education and Choral music, the Ellen Battle Stoeckel Fellowship for her work as a conductor at the Norfolk Chamber Music Festival (part of the Yale School of Music). She is Founder and Artistic Director of the Chamber Chamber Singers, conducts three choirs at the Royal Conservatory of Music and teaches music history classes and piano at Euromusic. She runs an active private studio where she teaches piano, theory, voice and conducting lessons. Her students have won top awards at local festivals, top awards and marks at the Royal Conservatory of Music exam program and qualified for provincial music festivals. Her piano teachers have included: Boris Lysenko, Marina Geringas and Lynda Metelsky. She enjoys teaching students of all ages and helps them to develop their musical potential.

Mr. Richard Tam holds a Master's and Bachelor degree in Applied Science and Engineering from the University of Toronto. His passion for music never diminished since studying at an early age at Euromusic. A favorite student of Mr. Tony Chong, Richard passed all RCM theory courses with First Class Honours with distinction, which led to his ARCT in piano performance diploma. Richard has taught many children and young adults piano and theory, tailoring and implementing his methods to suit the students' needs, and in turn, helping them to reach their personal goals and achieve excellent grades.
